Elders' Report:

All is going well. The elders continue to meet with the pastor on an as needed basis.

Pastor's Report:

Business as usual with services and visits. Ron Harmier's funeral was this quarter, on March 19th, and the peaceful release of Twana Bauer.

Trustees' Report:

The church roof is leaking. Ferguson Roofing, the company that replaced the roof in 2012, has been contacted. We are waiting for a response. We believe the roof is still under a 15 year warranty.

The picnic shed is also having roof problems, among other issues. After examining the building, it is the recommendation of the Trustees and the Church Council that we remove the shed. To be announced later, there will be a day set aside this summer that we will work on removing it. In the meantime, there are few things in the shed – picnic tables, wood, etc. One of the picnic tables will be placed near the parsonage for pastor's use. If you would like something, please contact me at 618-322-2084.

Sunday school:

The Easter egg hunt was a success. About 20 kids participated. Thanks to everyone who was involved in stuffing and hiding the eggs. The kids really had a great time in spite of the cooler weather. As usual, we encourage everyone to bring their children and grandchildren to Sunday school every week.

Bible Class:

Bible class is meeting regularly. Remember, everyone is invited to attend.

Finance Man: No report.

Sexton: No report.

Circuit Forum was on February 6, 2022 at St. Peter. Pastor Landskroener and Steve Hickerson attended on behalf of the church. Pastor Meyer from St. Peter was elected as Circuit Visitor. This election still has to be confirmed at the District Convention.

Doug Stine was elected as the new elder in a special election.

New Business:
