November, 2020

Dearly Beloved,

I thought you might enjoy a brief history of Thanksgiving Day.

In 1623, William Bradford, the governor of Plymouth Colony, declared:

"To All Ye Pilgrims: Inasmuch as the great Father has given us this year an abundant harvest of Indian corn, wheat, beans, squashes, and garden vegetables, and has made the forests to abound with game and the sea with fish and clams, and inasmuch as He has protected us from the ravages of the savages, has spared us from pestilence and disease, has granted us freedom to worship God according to the dictates of our own conscience; now, I, your magistrate, do proclaim that all ye Pilgrims, with your wives and little ones, do gather at ye meeting house, on ye hill, between the hours of 9 and 12 in the day time, on Thursday, November ye 29th of the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and twenty-three, and third year since ye Pilgrims landed on ye Pilgrim Rock, there to listen to ye pastor, and render thanksgiving to ye Almighty God for all His blessings."

In 1789, President George Washington declared a national holiday to be set aside for giving thanks. Our third president, Thomas Jefferson, ended the practice, calling it a conflict between church and state to mandate that the people have a day of prayer and thanksgiving. By the mid-nineteenth century there were many states celebrating a day of thanksgiving. In 1863, President Abraham Lincoln set aside the last Thursday in November as a day of thanksgiving. It bears noting that this proclamation was made while our nation was at war with itself. President Lincoln said it was only by God's blessing that this nation was not warring with other nations, that freedom, law, and order were still maintained here, and that America's business and population grew, despite the many lives lost during the war. During the Great Depression, President Franklin Roosevelt wanted to lengthen the Christmas shopping season and moved Thanksgiving Day up a week, to the third Thursday in November. In 1941, Congress voted to move this national holiday back to the fourth Thursday in November, and this day has remained in this place ever since.

While we don't have a service on Thanksgiving Day, we will gather in God's House the evening before, November 25 at 7:00 p.m. Now, we, as God's children, don't need a special day to give thanks to our heavenly Father for all the blessings He has bestowed on us. We get to do that every day of our lives. Yet, when we do have such opportunity to gather as His holy people, it's good to do so.

What do we have to be thankful for? Count your blessings beginning with what we learn from the First Article of the Creed: I believe that God has given me my body and soul, eyes, ears, and all my members, my reason and all my senses, and still takes care of them. He also give me clothing and shoes, food and drink, house and home, wife [or husband] and children, land, animals, and all I have. He richly and daily provides me with all that I need to support this body and life. He defends me against all danger and guards and protects me from all evil. All this He does only out of fatherly, divine goodness and mercy, without any merit or worthiness in me. For all this it is my duty to thank and praise, serve and obey Him.

If that's not enough, consider what we learn from the Fourth Petition of the Lord's Prayer: What is meant by daily bread? Daily bread includes everything that has to do with the support and needs of the body, such as food, drink, clothing, shoes, house, home, land, animals, money, goods, a devout husband or wife, devout children, devout workers, devout and faithful rulers, good government, good weather, peace, health, self-control, good reputation, good friends, faithful neighbors, and the like.

Wow! How richly blessed we are! Yet, there's more, much more, and it is not any less important. For God has also given us a Savior, the Lord Jesus, to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. He gives us the forgiveness of sins and eternal life through the Gospel in Holy Baptism, Holy Absolution, Holy Communion, in the preaching of His Holy Word. He has given us His Holy Spirit who brings us to saving faith and keeps us in that one true faith. These are the greatest blessings of all.

With all this in mind, we'll gather on Thanksgiving Eve, not because the government says we must or should, but because, by God's grace, we are the children of God and have been blessed beyond measure..

Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth! ² Serve the LORD with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! ³ Know that the LORD, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. ⁴ Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! ⁵ For the LORD is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations. (Psalm 100 ESV)

God bless you always.

Due to the changes brought on by the virus, the pastor and elders decided that communion would now be offered every Sunday to accommodate everyone that may not be able to attend service due to illness or quarantine. A motion was made that going forward the frequency of communion will be decided upon by the pastor and the elders. The motion was seconded and approved.
